Dear FENS Members,

Re: Nominations for FENS Award

As President of the Federation of European Nutrition Societies (FENS), I wish to invite all Member Bodies to nominate candidates to receive the FENS Award at the FENS Conference to be held on 15-18 October 2019, in Dublin, Ireland.

This highly prestigious award will be presented to a European colleague, recognised as an expert in the field of nutritional sciences and given in recognition for their achievements in their career.

Using the Nomination Form attached, I would be grateful if you could provide us with 3 nominees from countries other than your own, ranked in priority (best 1 to 3), with a few key words. Please return the nomination form by 31 May 2019.

Nominations will be evaluated by the FENS Nominating Committee who will take into consideration global ranking, promotion and service to the field of nutritional sciences.

Thank you in advance for your collaboration.

With kind regards,

Professor Heiner Boeing
FENS President
